Tom Bluemlein Oil Workshop

THE SEVEN PEARLS

Mr. Bluemlein will focus on The Seven Pearls of painting (the seven foundational truths) during the first day of the workshop. He will use slides; demos (he will demo in oil); and handouts as his tools for teaching. Demos will be done in the mornings and students will paint (using any medium) in the afternoons. Mr. Bluemlein will do individual instruction at the easel. There will be critique sessions on Friday.

Date: Monday, November 8, 2010 through Friday, November 12, 2010
Time: 9:00 a.m.—4:30 p.m. daily

TUITION: $400—NON MEMBERS
$350—MEMBERS

$150 Deposit will hold your place. Balance due October 8, 2010. Make checks payable to the Middletown Arts Center Class limited to 25.

You will be sent a list of supplies necessary for the workshop and information on local motels, restaurants, and a map upon receipt of your registration.

Your Instructor: Tom Bluemlein, President of the American Impressionist Society, is today's counterpart to the 19th century European master. He is a signature member of the Oil Painters of America, a member of Indiana Plein Air Painters & The Society of Marine Artists. He is a native Kentuckian and has studied with masters in Woodstock, NY; Cincinnati, OH; & Santa Fe, NM. Tom celebrates nature, capturing the beauty of the landscape and life force of the creation. He captures the spirit of the locale, not just the natural elements on view within the canvas. His palette highlights earthy hues with bold colors creating a homogenous presentation of sky, water and land. A true impressionist, he masters the power of light with a stroke and jot of his brush to capture a strong focused light. Visit his website: <http://tombluemlein.com>
